Social and Personal

Mrs. J. W. Harris, of Lewisburg, W. Va., has closed her country home, and there are no longer competing dances and prizes awarded for the winners. Miss Mary Elizabeth Moore at her apartments in the Chestertown Club are among the most notable charity events of the winter season.

Salt for Bermuda.

Mrs. Katherine Bryan, of Titusville, Pa., who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Bryan at their home on West Franklin Street, will leave the latter part of this week for a stay with relatives in Stanton and Harrisonburg. Miss Bryan spent several days in Petersburg last week, returning to Richmond on Saturday.

Invitations Out.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Willingham have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Carrie Irvin Willingham, to Thomas Justin Moore, the ceremony to take place on Thursday evening, December 18. Mr. Moore and his bride will be at home, after January 1, at 1721 Hanover Avenue. The Rev. Henry August Lewis has sent out cards for the marriage of his daughter, Ethel Gertrude, to Dr. William Harrison Higgins, of Dr. Higgins' residence on the afternoon of Tuesday, December 16, at 1 o'clock at the Methodist Church on Madison Street. A wedding luncheon will be served immediately after the ceremony at the residence.

Regular Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the general board of managers of the Shelling Arms Free Hospital will be held in the hospital today at 12 noon. Hereafter the notices will be made through the newspapers, as it has been decided to abandon the postcard system formerly used for that purpose. The annual meeting is tented.

At the Woman's Club.

At the Woman's Club this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock Mrs. William Shipp, of North Carolina, will give a travel talk. This will be at the conclusion of the lecture and a large audience will be present to hear Mrs. Shipp, who is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. Alton Hodges during her stay in this city.

Charity Entertainment.

A new departure in the way of a charity entertainment is "The Dances," which will take place in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel from 6:30 to 7 o'clock on December 13. It is under the direction and patronage of the Girls' Club of the Belle Haven Day Nursery. The tea tables will be arranged around the room and prettily decorated in flowers and shaded lights.

Birthday Party.

Charles Shipp, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jewell, of 1361 East Grace Street, and Miss H. Gertrude Forrestal, daughter of Mr. H. B. Forrestal, left for Washington on Tuesday, and were married in that city by the Rev. J. S. Montgomery, pastor of the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church. After December 15, Mr. and Mrs. Jewell will be at home at 610 North Twenty-seventh Street.

Approaching Marriage.

The marriage of Miss Ginnie Arimony, third daughter of Mrs. Maggie Hall, of 2811 North Twenty-first Street, and Thomas Hentzel Ellington, of Howard, Ga., will take place on Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Peter Jones, pastor of the Fulton Baptist Church, and Mrs. Essie Hall, a sister-in-law of the bride, will be matron of honor. She will be gowned in blue crepe de chine, with a train of Chantilly lace, and will carry a bouquet of white roses. Walter M. Hall will be the groom's best man. The bride will wear a lovely gown of white charmeuse, with a tulip veil, and carry a bouquet of bride roses.

After the ceremony Mr. Ellington and his bride will leave to spend their honeymoon in the South. They will be at home after January 1 in Poston, N. C.

Attentive Card Party.

An attractive affair of last week was the card party on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. H. Tate on Harrison Avenue. Misses Jeanette Lindner and Perry Seay won the first prizes, and those playing were Misses Jeanette Lindner, Lettie and Corinne Hartnett, Sammie and Winnie Floyd, Mirrie Stoddard, May Walters, Walter Gregory, May and Georgie Lucy, Marion Laine of New York, and in the guest of Miss Tate, Miss Hazel Bates, Messrs. Perry Seay, Howland Hopkins, E. F. Lindner, H. Thompson, M. S. Wilder, J. W. Tate, H. B. Powell, C. M. Lindner, Calvin Lucy, Harry Barber, T. H. Lauder, Ralph Eaton and Dr. Frank Hutton. Punch was served during the evening and a buffet supper at the conclusion of the game.

Marriage Announced.

Miss Frances Blanche Trice and Emmett P. Briscoe were married very quietly in the parlor of the Rev. J. B. Hudson, pastor of the Pine Street Baptist Church, on Thursday evening November 27, at 7 o'clock.

Dandy—Godsey.

The marriage of Miss Fannie T. Godsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Godsey, and M. J. Danby, of Cumberland, was celebrated at the Presbyterians Church in Cumberland on Tuesday. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. M. Street, and just before the entry of the bridal party Miss Rebecca Vaughan sang several appropriate selections. The ushers were Messrs. P. J. Gring, H. B. Wilkinson, B. Woodson, Herbert Gilliam, D. W. Godsey, Floyd Robertson, Tate and Foster, Jr., David Gilliam and J. D. Carpenter. The bridesmaids were Misses F. T. Foster, Mary Griggs, Lucy Robertson, Little Davis, Winnie Stuart, Lillian McNease, Thelma Smith and Sally Morrison.

Miss Louise Westerman and Alice Street were flower girls, and Katherine Godsey carried the ring. The matrons of honor included Mrs. E. W. Putney and Mrs. George G. Wilkinson. The bride, who entered with her maid of honor, Miss Helen Sneed, wore a dark blue travelling dress, with hat and gloves to match. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, K. F. Godsey, brother of the bride.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Danby left for a wedding journey.

The Williams Memorial Circle of King's Daughters will meet tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock with Miss Sarah Allen, of 1423 Hanover Avenue.
